Curtain Call

Instructor: Christine Wolf

10:00-11:30 am

Grades Pre K – 2nd grade

$95

Self-expression and Imagination are the focus of this creative drama class for young children PreK – 2nd grade. This class offers an engaging free-spirited introduction to theatre through drama, music movement, and visual art. Students are invited to act out stories, sing songs and create great works of art. In addition to getting a well-rounded exposure to theatre arts, students will develop skill of cooperation while working together to create a piece to share at the end of the session.

Down Stage Center

Instructor: John Mangan

10:00 – 11:30 am

Grades 3 – and up

$100

“Down Stage Center” is the place you want to be! This class is designed for children grades 3-6. Here students are encouraged to give creative responses and build character. Students will learn to develop as an individual artist as well as an effective member of a creative ensemble. Each class draws from a variety of specific techniques to develop the actor’s mind, voice and body for a confident and honest performance before a live audience. Improvisation as well as scripted scene study, provide confidence in acting fundamentals. This class will rehearse a production piece to be presented for friends and family at the end of the session.

Junior Glee Club

Instructor: Christine Wolf

9:00 – 10:00

Grades 1 -4

$100

This is a junior version of our Glee Club. Throughout the semester we will work on presence, and song transitions. We will have some fun movement for our songs, which will be performed at the end of this exciting semester. Glee will help the artist inside explode and grow in confidence. Together, let's tap into your positive energy and burst into the world of performing arts and shine.

Glee Club

Instructor: Joey Myers

10:00 – 11:30

Grades 5 and up

$120

Amazingly Fun Group Singing! Throughout the semester we will work on presence, harmonizing, and song transitions. We will build a solid group with a round bright sound. Our Choreographer will have exhilarating movement for our songs, which will be performed at the end of this exciting semester. Glee will help the artist inside explode and grow in confidence. Together, let's tap into your positive energy and burst into the world of performing arts and shine.

Talk to the Hand!

Instructor: Benji Cotter

9:00 – 10:00

Grades 3 and up

$100

This class in puppetry will give students a look at a very different aspect of theatre than they are used to. In this class, students will learn to operate puppets, develop specific character voices for each puppet, and even have a chance to create a puppet of their own. We will discuss different styles of puppets, and, at the end of the semester, be able to perform several puppet scenes for parents and other students.

Shakespeare

Instructor: John Mangan

12:30 – 2:00 pm

Grades 5 – and up

$120

John has been igniting creativity and teaching students a basic understanding of the wonderful works of Shakespeare for a long time. This Shakespeare class will be working on a great cutting of “Romeo and Juliet”! Yes, our Shakespeare students will undertake the challenge. 9 intense Saturdays of getting the show ready, along with learning lots about good ol’ Will Shakespeare, with a special performance of “Romeo and Juliet” at the end of the semester. Catch the excitement!

Group Voice

Instructor: Joey Myers

12:30 – 1:30pm Grades 6 and up
